

TESTIMONIALS

"We are very positive about the training; it gave us important insights again - and a basis to move forward with. During the training, past experiences also fell into place. As far as I'm concerned, such training is a must for anyone who is going to work in a different culture."

Harry Schimmel, General Director De Heus, Cambodia

"Working with Alette on an exciting subject as cultural diversity was a real pleasure. (...). She was able to deliver a tailor-made training on a short term notice that provided us with several interesting cases, eye-openers and tooling for embedding this knowledge in our day-to-day roles. Professional, Flexible, Fun to work with."

Anke Aidam, Vlisco Group

Deep knowledge and experience in culturally diverse environments, which is being transferred to others in a natural and structured way.

Hugo Visscher, General Managing Koudijs, Ghana

"The 1 day training intercultural management raised our awareness of differences in our natural tendencies and assumptions, and the consequences of these differences in our daily work. Both on individual level and on team level, within our organisation and in external relations. Very helpful, explaining and sometimes confronting. We should have done this earlier."

Johan Sijtzeman, Budget development coordinator, SNV

Alette is passionate and knowledgeable. Having lived and worked in Africa for years herself makes her a credible trainer. The combination of Hofstede's scientific theory and Alette's practical experience and humor, makes her classes extremely interesting and enjoyable to follow.

Inez Willeboordse, Managing Partner, Jobnet Africa

"Good explanations; lots of opportunities for questions, real-life situations" - "Super instructive course that is immediately useful in practice."

*"Super clear, straightforward explanation with plenty of room to spar, discuss cases."
